Dear Sir:

Your facility has notified the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) that your current status under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA) is as follows:

- Generator
 Transporter
 Treater/Storer/Disposer

Your response to the 1981 Annual Report for Hazardous Waste Activity submitted DEC 1982 indicated the following for 1981:

- Non-Handler
 Small Quantity Generator
 Exempt
 Beneficial Use
 Closed

If your 1981 hazardous waste activity included any generation or treating, storing, or disposing of hazardous wastes, you must refile your 1981 Annual Report on the correct form.

If your facility had non-regulated status in 1981, but is currently regulated under the status checked in paragraph one, no updated forms are required. However, if your facility's past, current, and projected status is non-regulated, you should make the appropriate changes on the enclosed Notification of Hazardous Waste Activity form # 8700-12. Also, if you incorrectly checked the treat/store/dispose (TSD) box on the original notification, the enclosed certification that no TSD activities ever occurred should also be signed. The forms should be returned to this office as soon as possible.

If you have any questions, please contact Marilee Hood at 214/767-9725.

Sincerely yours,

Gerald Fontenot, Chief

Re: Watch's Overall Cleaning, Albuquerque, New Mexico
EPA ID# NMD 035673840

Dear Ms. Thompson:

We have received your letter of February 10, 1983, regarding the status of the referenced facility. The letter asserts the facility is not a hazardous waste generator.

From our past inspection, we tend to agree that the facility has not generated hazardous waste. However, the laboratory analyses submitted primarily to substantiate that claim do not rule out the possibility that the waste is a characteristic hazardous as defined at 40 CFR Part 261.201.

Further, the notification of hazardous waste activity may only be amended or, in this case, withdrawn, by the responsible corporate officer. Previously, Mr. Wayne Wiffette, Corporate Engineering Manager, notified us of these activities. If you now have the responsibility for environmental matters of this nature, please so state. Until we receive such notification, we are unable to change the facility's status.

If I can be of assistance in this matter, please call me at 214-767-9329.

Sincerely yours,

Scott Nicholson
