Subject: Request to Inspect Public Records

We have received a request from Greg Mello, Executive Director, Los Alamos Study Group, asking for information regarding a comprehensive list and copies of all Public Notices that the New Mexico Environment Department may have published during the period of June 1, 2001 - June 20, 2002, regarding the New Mexico Hazardous Waste Act and Resource Conservation Recovery Act--the compliance and permitting processes at Los Alamos National Laboratory.

The Inspection of Public Records Act requires a response to a requester of public records within fifteen (15) calendar days from receipt of a request, however please try to make a valued effort to try to get these copies to Mr. Mello on or before June 25, 2002.

Your response may take several forms:

- a) Provide the requested information;
- b) Notify the requester of a delay; you must give reasons for the delay and the date when the information will be available;
- c) Deny the request or part of it; give what cannot be released and the reason(s);
- d) Ask for more information or clarification; and
- e) Notify the requester of any mailing or photocopy charges.

A copy of my initial response to this request is enclosed for your records. Please provide me with a copy of any responses you make to this request and/or notify me when the records have been made available for inspection.

Thank you in advance for your attention to this matter.
