FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
FOR THE LOS ALAMOS NATIONAL LABORATORY (LANL) ORDER ISSUED BY THE NEW MEXICO ENVIRONMENT DEPARTMENT

1. How long is the public comment period?

The public comment period is 60 days, beginning on May 2, 2002 and ending on July 1, 2002 at 5:00 p.m. MDT.

2. How can I comment on the Order?

Comments must be submitted in writing to the following address by the deadline listed above:

James P. Bearzi, Chief
Hazardous Waste Bureau
New Mexico Environment Department
2905 Rodeo Park Drive East, Building 1
Santa Fe, New Mexico 87505-6303
Ref: Los Alamos National Laboratory Facility Order

Although oral comments and questions are part of the meetings, oral comments and questions will not be recorded and placed into the administrative record. The New Mexico Environment Department will respond formally to written comments only. Written comments and their answers will be placed in the administrative record.

3. What will happen to my written comments if they are received by the New Mexico Environment Department after the deadline?

Only written comments received by the New Mexico Environment Department (the Department) by July 1, 2002 will be considered.

4. Can I submit comment anonymously?

No. The Department will only consider comments containing the commentor's name and address. Comments submitted anonymously will not be considered.
