Good Afternoon,

I'm not sure that this was meant for us but usually on single or multi-column ad Susan or myself set them up in which case having a Word document works best, however when the ads are display ads they are sent to our graphic artists and we want to ensure that the text is correct in any case. Thanks for your assistance.

Vanessa,

That's strange. Usually they complain that we send a pdf. For once our translator sent it in Word.
