Written comments
must be based on
the information
available for review
and include, to the
extent practicable,
all referenced factual
materials. Documents in the administrative record need not be re-submitted if expressly referenced by the commenter. Requests for a Public Hearing shall provide: (1) a clear and concise factual
statement of the nature and scope of
the interest of the
person requesting
the hearing; (2) the
name and address
of all persons
whom the requester
represents; (3) a
statement of any
objections to the
draft permit; and
(4) a statement of
the issues which
the commenter proposes to raise for consideration at the hearing. NMED will provide a minimum
30 day notice of a Public Hearing, if
scheduled.

NMED must ensure that the draft permit
is consistent with the New Mexico Hazardous Waste
Management Regulations. All written comments submitted
will be considered in formulating a final decision and may
result in NMED
modifying the draft
permit. NMED will
respond in writing to
all public comments
received. This response will specify which provisions, if any,
of the draft permit
have been changed in
the final decision and
the reasons for the change, and will provide a brief description of all public comments. All persons presenting written
comments or who request
notification in writing
will be notified of the decision by mail. The final decision also will be posted on the
NMED website.

After consideration
of all the written
public comments
received, NMED will

issue or modify and
issue the draft permit.
If NMED modifies the draft permit, NMED will provide to the Permittee
a copy of the modified draft permit and a
detailed written statement containing the reasons for the modifications by mail.

NMED will make the
final decision publicly available and will notify the Permittee by certified mail. The final decision will constitute a final agency decision and may be appealed as provided by the HWA.

Los comentarios escritos deben basarse en la información disponible para su revisión e incluir, en la medida de lo posible, todos los materiales fácticos a los que se haga referencia. No es necesario volver a presentar documentos que se encuentren en el registro administrativo si el autor de los comentarios hace expresamente referencia a los mismos. Las solicitudes de audiencia pública deberán incluir: (1) una declaración fáctica clara y concisa de la naturaleza y alcance del interés de la persona que solicita la audiencia; (2) el nombre y la dirección de todas las personas a quienes representa el solicitante; (3) una declaración de todas las objeciones al proyecto de permiso; y (4) una declaración de los asuntos que el autor de los comentarios propone plantear para su consideración en la audiencia.

El NMED pondrá a disposición pública la decisión final y notificará al Permisionario por correo certificado. La decisión final del departamento podrá apelarse según lo establece la ley HWA.

El NMED debe garantizar que el proyecto de permiso sea congruente con el Reglamento de Nuevo México para el Manejo de Residuos Peligrosos. Se considerarán todos los comentarios presentados por escrito para tomar la decisión final, lo cual podrá tener como consecuencia que el NMED modifique el proyecto de permiso. El NMED responderá a todos los comentarios recibidos del público. Esa respuesta especificará qué disposiciones, de haber alguna, del proyecto de permiso se han cambiado en la decisión final y los motivos del cambio, y proporcionará una breve descripción de todos los comentarios del público. Todos aquellos que presenten comentarios escritos y quienes soliciten notificación escrita serán notificados por correo sobre la decisión. La decisión final será también publicada en el sitio web del NMED.

Luego de considerar todos los comentarios escritos recibidos del público, el NMED emitirá, o modificará y emitirá, el proyecto de permiso. Si el NMED modificara el proyecto de permiso, el NMED le enviará por correo al Permisionario una copia del proyecto de permiso modificado y una declaración escrita detallada que contenga los motivos de las modificaciones.
